1 and say, if I make this representation to 2 Judge Campbell, we're going to honor it. And they 3 say, okay, we understand that and, you know, we're 4 going to do that.

5 But I will say parenthetically, they also 6 said to me, most of our readers are not so
7 interested in watching a deposition which -- 8 because, you know, they had just been through 9 them -- which is boring. I mean, most people, you 10 know, think, oh, depositions are exciting because 11 they watch TV and, you know, what lawyers do is 12 exciting. Generally it's pretty boring. And 13 they're not interested -- they took a 30-minute
14 tape and cut it down to a minute and 40 seconds to 15 make it more focused. They're not going to take 16 an eight-hour tape or 16-hour tape or however long
17 the deposition is and start posting it online.
18 Nobody is interested in watching that. So they 19 have no interest in doing that. But they've 20 authorized me to represent to the Court that 21 they're not going to do that.

22 I think given that, we ought to be able to 23 avail ourselves of the rules that allow us to use
24 this videotaping for what it's for, which is to 25 prepare ourselves for a trial in this case, not --

1 and eliminate from the picture, you know,
2 publishing it online.

3 Unless there are any questions about all of 4 the various things that we've talked about, I'll 5 sit down. Because some of that was related to our 6 affirmative motion, I probably would like to just 7 reserve a brief amount for rebuttal.

8 THE COURT: Okay. We're stopping at noon.
9 So let me throw this out, because I still want to 10 allow him an opportunity, Mr. Harder. And I
11 understand part of the motion to compel. In going
12 through a lot of this yesterday, it seems to me
13 that there are going to be -- Mr. Harder thinks 14 it's objectionable, you think it's not 15 objectionable as -- when you get into the actual 16 deposition itself.

17 It seems to me that the appointment of a
18 special magistrate would be -- for discovery
19 purposes would be an efficient tool so that there 20 was somebody right there at the -- during these 21 depositions to make calls. I was trying to think 22 of who would that person be. I think this is a
23 unique case that would require a unique person.

24 So the person I was thinking about -- and 25 I -- you're Mr. Berlin, right?

1 MR. BERLIN: That's right.

2 THE COURT: You probably don't know some of 3 our local folks. But I was thinking of 4 Judge Jim Case, who is a senior retired judge.
5 I'm sure Mr. Cohen and Mr. Turkel know him.

6 So think about -- do you have any response to 7 that off the top of your head? I know I'm just 8 throwing that out, but it seems to me that that 9 would be an important --

10 MR. BERLIN: Well, my reaction -- if the 11 Court wants to do that, we'll obviously do
12 whatever the Court would like and we'll, you know,
13 work with the special magistrate to do whatever is 14 necessary. My hope was that by raising these 15 issues in detailed motions, we would have rulings
16 that --

17 THE COURT: Oh, I plan on giving you some of 18 those rulings now to narrow the focus.

19 MR. BERLIN: Let me give you an example in a
20 microcosm. We had a contested motion the last 21 time we were before you about whether we could get 22 a 30-day extension of discovery for our responses,
23 right?

24 THE COURT: Right.

25 MR. BERLIN: The Court ruled on that, granted
