TERRY BOLLEA, TMZ INTERVIEW (OCTOBER 9, 2012)

HARVEY LEVIN: Hulk joins us right now along with his attorney, David Houston.

Guys, welcome to “TMZ Live.”

DAVID HOUSTON: How are you?

LEVIN: We're good. We're good. You there, Hulk?

TERRY BOLLEA: Yeah, yeah, brother, I'm here.

LEVIN: So Mike has seen the tape. And so I think, you know, rather than me doing secondhand, Mike, you there?

MIKE WALTERS: Yeah, I – so Hulk and David, I actually saw the tape. And I kind of wanted to go over it with you because I did hear you on “Howard Stern” talking about Bubba and being still friends with him and that you were pretty sure you knew maybe where this was coming from.

I want to read to you the transcript of the end of this tape because I think it's going to change your mind. And I want to get your reaction to it.

LEVIN: And Mike, we should just say – and correct me if I'm wrong, but this is just after the sexual encounter ends, and Hulk walks out of the room.

CHARLES LATIBEAUDIÈRE: (Inaudible) – out of the room, right?

WALTERS: Exactly, this is the end of the tape. You leave, and Bubba comes back in the room, and Heather's on the bed.

And Bubba says, I quote, if we ever did want to retire, all we'd have to do is use this footage of him.

[00:01:04]

So I just kind of want your reaction to that. I know you know that this might be in one of the tapes. I can tell you 100 percent that is what Bubba says when you leave the room.

BOLLEA: If that is true, I'm sick to my stomach right now because I have gone over this with Bubba. And I don't know why someone would secretly film this. And when this first popped up, you know, six or seven months ago, you know, it was something I was praying would go away simply because I'm accountable for it. You know, it happened way before I met my current wife, Jennifer. And I was at an all-time low.

I pretty much bottomed out, to tell you the truth, with my personal relationship, you know, with the marriage I had. And I was, you know, at an all-time low, and I made a bad choice. You know, and like I've said before, you know, Bubba and Heather have always been close friends.

Bubba's been nothing but a good friend to me, which makes me – my reaction – I had not heard that straight-up from you like this. And you know, the fact that Heather's always been such a nice person to me and was always kind, the fact that, you know, this situation happened – you know, for a couple of years I thought it was a joke when Heather was making advances, and Bubba was saying, oh, it's OK. It's OK.

And this went on constantly for a couple of years before the incident. And then when it happened it was my choice. When the offer was made again I made a huge mistake. And I will forever be sorry for that.

WALTERS: Hulk, did –

BOLLEA: And my attorney, David Houston, and I have decided since – (inaudible) –

WALTERS: – he ever admit to you that he – that he taped you while you were in his room?

BOLLEA: No, I've asked him. I've asked him. I said, Bubba, you are my friend.

And I said this to him a few days ago.

[00:03:01]

And I still stand by this: that, Bubba, you are my friend and you're one of the only real friends I had in my life. I value your friendship. And whoever did this to me, filmed me secretly, whoever leaked this tape, I don't know what the motive is, if it's just trying to destroy me or if they're trying to make money. But if you had anything to do with this, that meant we were never friends and that – you know, I love you to death and I know you have a family and that if you did this, you need to tell me now.

And that conversation has happened several times. And if you did this you need to tell me now. I'm not here to destroy lives because I love your son. But you telling me something like this makes me sick right now.

LATIBEAUDIÈRE: Well, we should say we don't know that –

HOUSTON: (Inaudible.)

LATIBEAUDIÈRE: – we don't know that Bubba had anything to do with leaking the tape.

BOLLEA: That's right. And I want to find out. That's why we're having a full-blown criminal and civil investigation on who set this camera up and who released the tape. And whoever did it – I've discussed it with David Houston over and over – we're going to civilly and criminally not be happy until we've exhausted all sources and they're – and they're being led out of jail in handcuffs because this is a criminal offense.
