Judicial Assistant

- A list of all exhibits which are expected to be admitted at trial whether for substantive, demonstrative, corroborative, impeachment or rebuttal purposes.
 - The parties also shall serve on each other copies of all exhibits, other than demonstrative exhibits, that each party intends to use at trial. The exhibits may be delivered via disk, flashdrive, or other electronic means. These exhibits shall not be filed with or served on the Court or clerk.²
6. Witnesses and exhibits which are not listed as described above may provide testimony or be admitted at trial only upon stipulation of all parties or as allowed by order of the Court at or before the pre-trial conference.

EXPERT DISCLOSURES

7. No later than March 6, 2015, counsel for all parties, and any unrepresented party, shall serve upon opposing counsel and any unrepresented party and file directly with the clerk:
- A list of the names and addresses of all expert witnesses who are expected to testify at trial on any issue.
8. No later than March 27, 2015, counsel for all parties, and any unrepresented party, shall serve upon opposing counsel and any unrepresented party and file directly with the clerk:
- A list of the names and addresses of all rebuttal expert witnesses who are expected to testify at trial.
9. In addition to names and addresses of each expert who is expected to testify at trial, the parties shall provide to each other no later than the dates listed in paragraphs 7 and 8 respectively:
- the subject matter about which the expert is expected to testify;
 - the substance of the facts and opinions about which the expert is expected to testify;
 - a summary of the grounds for each opinion;
 - a copy of written reports issued by the expert regarding this case;
 - a copy of the expert's curriculum vitae, as well as citations to all cases in which the person has testified at any deposition, hearing, or trial as an expert, going back three years;

² The parties shall exchange copies of demonstrative aids intended for use during opening statements prior to trial, and no later than July 3, 2015.

- the scope of the expert's employment in the pending case and the compensation for such service;
- the expert's general litigation experience as an expert, including the percentage of work performed for plaintiffs and defendants;
- an approximation of the portion of the expert's involvement as an expert witness, which may be based on the number of hours, percentage of hours, or percentage of earned income derived from serving as an expert witness; however, the parties shall not be required to disclose the expert's earnings as an expert witness or income derived from other services, except to note the expert's compensation for his/her service in this case as noted above; and
- a list of all documents relied upon by the expert in forming his/her opinions (including bates-numbers for documents previously produced in this litigation), and copies of any of those documents that are not pleadings in this case, transcripts of deposition testimony taken in this case, or documents previously produced by a party in this case.

All previously served interrogatories and document requests directed to taking discovery concerning experts expected to testify at trial are hereby deemed withdrawn.

10. Expert witnesses who are not listed as described in paragraphs 7 through 9 may provide testimony only upon stipulation of all parties or as allowed by order of the Court at or before the pre-trial conference.

COMPLETION OF DISCOVERY

11. All depositions of lay witnesses and all fact discovery must be completed no later than April 10, 2015. Depositions of lay witnesses and fact discovery after April 10, 2015 shall be permitted only as allowed by the Special Discovery Magistrate, by the Court, or by stipulation of the parties.
12. All depositions of expert witnesses and all expert discovery must be completed no later than April 13, 2015.
13. Any discovery requiring a response from the adverse party must be served in time for the response to be due prior to the deadline date established herein. Unavailability of hearing times on motions prior to the Pre-Trial Conference shall not be grounds for extension of deadlines or continuation of the Pre-Trial Conference or Trial, absent exceptional circumstances, as determined by the Court.
14. Pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.280(b)(4)(C), the party seeking the expert discovery shall pay experts a reasonable fee for the time spent in responding to discovery requests and the time attending depositions, such payment to be made after an expert deposition or service of expert interrogatory answers.
