FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of entry 10/16/2012

DAVID HOUSTON, office number 775-786-4188, cell phone number 775-771-2874 was interviewed at the Pinellas Resident Agency of the FBI. Also present during the interview was HOUSTON's client, TERRY BOLLEA. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, HOUSTON provided the following information:

HOUSTON was asked to explain what law enforcement agencies he had spoken with prior to his visit to the FBI. HOUSTON advised since TODD CLEM (hereinafter referred to as "T. CLEM"), also known as BUBBA THE LOVE SPONGE resided in Tierra Verde, FL as well as the sex act took place in Tierra Verde, FL, he had contacted the St. Petersburg Police Department (SPPD). Prior to SPPD, HOUSTON had contacted the Clearwater Police Department (CPD). SPPD Major [redacted] spoke with the State Attorney's Office and told HOUSTON that the filming of the sex act between BOLLEA and HEATHER CLEM was out of statute and a criminal investigation would not be initiated. HOUSTON was also encouraged to speak with the FBI. b6 - 5

Agent Note: Interviewing Agents explained the jurisdiction of Tierra Verde and St. Petersburg and recommended that if needed, HOUSTON consult with the Pinellas Sheriff's Office as they have jurisdiction over Tierra Verde.

Since GAWKER released the one minute of the BOLLEA sex tape, HOUSTON has been contacted by a number of outlets to include KEITH DAVIDSON, an attorney out of Beverly Hills, CA; [redacted] of the website thedirty.com; TMZ and others. [redacted] has claimed that he has seen the sex tapes and has been helpful to HOUSTON. HARVEY LNU (last name unknown) and MIKE WALTERS from TMZ contacted HOUSTON soon after the one minute clip came out on GAWKER on October 3, 2012. WALTERS and HARVEY advised HOUSTON that they transcribed the tape and after the sex act was over, BOLLEA leaves the room. Once BOLLEA is gone, T. CLEM walks into the room and made a comment, while laughing, to the effect of the tape being a retirement fund if ever needed. b6 - 4

Following the conversation with HARVEY and WALTERS, HOUSTON was contacted directly by STEVEN DIACO, attorney for T. CLEM. Prior to DIACO's phone call, T. CLEM was still denying that he was at all behind the taping of the sex act. DIACO stated to HOUSTON that T. CLEM would at that point, not deny the taping. HOUSTON felt that this statement violated DIACO's and T. CLEM's attorney-client privilege.

HOUSTON was initially contacted via e-mail by DAVIDSON on October 10, 2012. After exchanging e-mails, DAVIDSON and HOUSTON spoke on the telephone whereby DAVIDSON stated to HOUSTON that he was a contingent fee attorney that represented the possessors of additional sex tapes involving BOLLEA and HEATHER CLEM. DAVIDSON further stated that he would negotiate with HOUSTON and BOLLEA for the purchase of the copyrights of the tapes. DAVIDSON stated that it would have to "be worth his while" financially to sell the tapes. He also indicated to HOUSTON that negotiating in this way was his specialty.

In a subsequent conversation between HOUSTON and DAVIDSON, DAVIDSON stated that he had reviewed the tapes and said one of the tapes contained racial epitaphs which could hurt BOLLEA's career if released. DAVIDSON also claimed that the possessors of the tapes obtained them legally as they purchased a laptop which contained said images/tapes. HOUSTON set further conversation up for a conference call and has not had additional contact with DAVIDSON since October 12, 2012. (HOUSTON provided e-mails which will be kept in a 1A folder in the file)

Agent Note: Contained within the 1A are interview notes containing statements from both BOLLEA and Houston. Separate 302's were written to separate the statements.
