THIS CAUSE came before the Court on April 11, 2016, upon the Intervenor's Motion to Unseal all Judicial Records Currently Filed Under Seal, dated March 21, 2016. Appearing before the Court were Kenneth Turkel and Shane Vogt, attorneys for the Plaintiff; Rachel Fugate, attorney for the Defendant, Gawker; and Robert Rogers and Allison Steele, attorneys for the Intervenor. The Court has considered the Motion, argument of counsel and is otherwise duly advised in the premises and therefore it is hereby ORDERED that the Clerk of Court is hereby DIRECTED to UNSEAL each of the records in the October 28, 2015 and November 18, 2015 Orders and to make them available in the case file for this action for inspection and/or copying by the press and public.

In closing, the Court would like to remind counsel of their ethical obligations under the Professionalism Expectations adopted by the Florida Bar Board of Governors on January 30, 2015, 5.10 A Lawyer should attempt to resolve disagreements before requesting a court hearing. Preparing for hearings in this case takes a tremendous amount of time, not only for the parties, but also for the Court. To prepare for this hearing the Court compared the requested items with the items that have already been published by the Second District Court of Appeals and with the items previously unsealed by this Court. If the parties and intervenors agree on various issues, there is no need to schedule hearing time, simply submit an order with a cover letter expressing the agreement.

ORDERED in Pinellas County, Florida, on April 15, 2016.
