Subject: TMZ interview

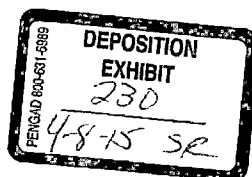

I love you to death, but I have to be honest and say I think this interview is SO beneath you. TMZ used it to verbally set up the sex tape, and took what you said to drag this story out even further with sensational headlines, etc. It benefits them, but NOT you. I am on your team, but people like RentACenter and others can look at this differently. I am surprised your attorney let you agree to the interview, but I have to say this as well, seeing your attorney's face/name on this makes me think he did this more for him than you.

Terry, this is my specialty. Had I known you were going to do this I would have tried to stop you and said to issue a simple statement. It would have positioned you in a much more positive light and thrown water on this story to extinguish it versus fuel on it to keep it going. I am here to help you. It still may make sense to issue a statement, because if not, media will now just pick out the TMZ sensational headlines and run with that.

Let me know if you want to talk. And again, please let me help you if you ever find yourself in a situation like this in the future:....
