

IN The sixth Judicial Circuit Court, IN and for Pinellas County, Florida.

State of Florida

v.

Cornelius Whitfield.

Case No: 21-01099-CF.

81-01513-CF

Defendant's Motion, Requesting an Investigation of the Pinellas County Jail officials & Sheriff's office, illegal seizure of the Defendant's legal papers, documents, personal mail, phone numbers etc. without Probable Cause, Hindering Counsel and Client Presenting Case Documents.

Comes now the Defendant Cornelius Whitfield on his own free will and accord submits the foregoing motion, be investigate and Granted by this Honorable Court. The Pinellas County Sheriff's office, through its Agency, The Pinellas County Jail, 144,000, 49, St. North, Clearwater Florida, administration has as follows:

STATEMENT of Facts.

The Defendant has been housed at the Pinellas County Jail since Feb. of 2021. The Defendant have had in his Possession of Documents, legal Documents that has been Provided to the Defendant, by this Court, and its Public Defenders office and by the Clerk of this Court. These Documents are and not limited to Discovery material, Police reports, witness statements, Testimony, Depositions Reports, and any other mandates issued to the Defendant up to this point while being detained at the Pinellas County Jail. The Defendant is hindered from, and deprived from the right to Confront His accuser Pursuant to the 6th amendment of the U.S. Constitution, and to properly prepare ~~an~~ a line of Defense.

(1)

If the Defendant is deprived of inspecting the Record Created against Him. The Administration has also deprived the Defendants Attorney from bringing the Defendant any portion of His Discovery. This Hinders the Representative of the Defendant are being Hindered from preparing an Defense. The Defendant Nor His Attorney has violated any Federal, State, County, Nor Jail Rules or Regulations to impose such sanctions, restrictions, and seizure from the Defendant of those material legal Documents without Probable Cause and of Warrant that the Defendant has to safeguard Personal legal Papers or Documents. that right is of the 4th amendment of the U. S. Constitution. and that of The Jail Hand Book Rules Cited in the Inmate Hand Book Rule XIV. mail. ON Page 15 of 37, and Rule. XXIII Property.

this deprivation disrupts the Defendant and His Counsel of Preparing an effective Proper Defense. Salahuddin V. Goard, 467 F.3d. 263, (2d Cir. 2006). The Defendant has not violated any rule or law to Have His legal Documents, Mail, letters, etc. Confiscated, Without a probable Cause or with a Warrant. This action harms the Defendant from Filing law suits and etc. Salahuddin V. Goard, 467, 263, (2d Cir. 2006).

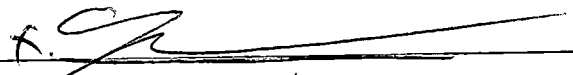

The defendant has not violated any institutional Rules, Cited in the institutional Inmate Hand Book. The Supreme Court established fundamental right to access the Courts in a series of important Cases including the, Ex Parte Hur, 312, U.S. 546, (1941), Johnson V. Avery, 383, U.S. 483, (1969) and Boonds V. Smith, 430 U.S. 813 (1977). This right allows inmates to file Section 1983, Bivens Claim, Habeas Corpus, or to work on their Cases. Prisoner's Disciplinary segregation, such system violates a Prisoner Rights to access to the Courts. Trujillo V. Williams, 465, F.3d 1210 (10th Cir. 2006)

The Defendant needs his legal material and request this Court to issue an order upon the Administration of the Pinellas County Jail, instructing, that all Personal and legal Materials be returned to the Defendant. And to show Probable Cause if Refused to do so.

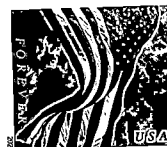

Certificate of Service.

on this day of June, 2025, I submitted this motion to the Clerk of Court via U.S. Mail.

Cornelius Whitfield

(3)

PINELLAS COUNTY #1856571
14250 49TH ST. NORTH
CLEARWATER FL, 33762

Clerk of Court
Pinellas County Courthouse
14250 49th St. North
Clearwater Florida 33762

LEGAL MAIL