1           that's obviously missing from discovery that you
2           need to talk to me about now?

3           MS. MANUELE: I honestly -- I haven't
4           even -- I don't know yet.

5           THE COURT: All right. Everything is on 6           evidence.com that you're aware of or is there
7           anything that needs to get special ordered?

8           MS. ELLIS: I believe that Ms. Sullivan gave 9           you a whole disk to our whole case.

10          MS. MANUELE: I know that there's a bunch of 11          stuff. I just don't know what all is on there or 12          what might not be on there yet.

13          THE COURT: How about August 21st at 1:30 in 14          the afternoon for pretrial?

15          MS. MANUELE: Could we go back two weeks after 16          that?

17          THE COURT: That would be September?

18          MS. MANUELE: Yes, please.

19          THE COURT: September 11th, 9/11, at 1:30 for 20          a pretrial.

21          MS. MANUELE: Thank you, your Honor.

22          MS. ELLIS: And, your Honor, I just wanted to 23          let you know that we did get the medical records.
24          We took out the toxicology from our request and 25          included your order. But we still got a page of

1 toxicology in what we received. I have discovered
2 it all over to the Defense. We will destroy it.
3 We'll do whatever you would like us to do with it.
4 It looks like it's one urine chemistry is what it's
5 titled, and it does have some toxicology in it.

6 MS. MANUELE: Judge, we would, obviously, be
7 objecting to the State having even reviewed that
8 because they're constitutionally protected absent a
9 court order which your Honor specifically excluded.
10 So we would be asking the Court order the State to 11 destroy any copies that was not granted by the 12 order.

13 THE COURT: Sounds good. So destroy the 14 toxicology reports. And, obviously, that was a
15 without prejudice. If you need to reorder them
16 later on or ask for them later on and I grant it,
17 you will have to reorder them. Okay. So
18 toxicology --

19 MS. ELLIS: And just for the record the next
20 of kin is present in the courtroom.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Do they want to be heard
22 about anything today?

23 MS. ELLIS: I don't believe today they do.

24 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So we'll see
25 Mr. Mosley on 9/11 at 1:30.

1           Sir, please do not refuse court. It took two
2 hours to get you over here this morning. Your
3 lawyers were waiting for you. All right. So,
4 please, when they ask you to come, come to court.

5           MS. MANUELE: And, Judge, I think there was a
6 miscommunication. He was told that he was able to 7 refuse because the waiver of his presence had been
8 filed over at the jail. They had told him that.
9 So --

10          THE COURT: All right. So when the State is 11 seeking death in your case, it's important that 12 you're here. I would think that you would want to 13 be here to make sure that you know what's going on 14 with your case. Okay. So I'll see you on 15 September 11th at 1:30 in the afternoon.
